13th November 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

It's been a thoughtful and inspiring week here in school. On Tuesday, we held our whole-school Act of Remembrance. From our youngest pupils to our oldest, everyone took part with great respect and maturity. It was wonderful to see how calmly and thoughtfully the children reflected on the importance of remembering those who have served and sacrificed for others.

This week is also Anti-Bullying Week, with the theme "Power for Good." We launched the week with an assembly on Monday, where we talked about how each of us can make a positive difference through kindness, respect, and standing up for others. Throughout the week, children across the school have been joining in with a variety of class activities, thinking carefully about how they can use their "power for good" in everyday life - in the classroom, on the playground, and beyond.

We're really proud of how well the children have engaged with both of these important themes, showing empathy, understanding, and care for others.

Thank you, as always, for your ongoing support in helping to reinforce these messages at home.

Yours sincerely

Mrs. Judith Bentley
